

Low Power FM concerns me as it appears you are considering allowing such to take priority over FM translator services such as those K-Love FM has around the country. K-love offers a positive message that may not be offered by LPFM. K-love is listened to around the world including our troops abroad and at home. Please do not take a action that could cause the loss of K-love translators around the country and thus their positive community impact.